English is a West Germanic language that was first spoken in early medieval England and eventually became a global lingua franca. Named after the Angles, one of the Germanic tribes that migrated to the area of Great Britain that would later take their name, England, both names ultimately deriving from the Anglia peninsula in the Baltic Sea. It is closely related to Frisian and Low Saxon, and ...

These characteristics of human capital prompted Harlan Cleveland, former President of the World Academy of Art and Science, to observe that "the only limits are the limits to imagination and creativity" (18). They led Aurelio Peccei, founder of the Club of Rome, to argue that human capital is the most underutilized of all forms of capital (19). ...
