Seth was one of my first metaphysical teachers. He remains reality, in our own experience, he is pointing to with the word, "God." Here is his second example: he describes how we long for true and beautiful moments, moments that we would like to last. And human life does have its lofty moments, moments we would like to embed in eternity. I can think of quite a few

Reality is my God - The Great Story

Reality can be defined in a way that links it to worldviews or parts of them (conceptual frameworks): Reality is the totality of all things, structures (actual and conceptual), events (past and present) and phenomena, whether observable or not.

Reality - Wikipedia

Hyperreality, in semiotics and postmodernism, is an inability of consciousness to distinguish reality from a simulation of reality, especially in technologically advanced postmodern societies. Hyperreality is seen as a condition in which what is real and what is fiction are seamlessly blended together so that there is no clear distinction ...
