How to Cook Everything Fast's just call it Fast's has been, like all the books in this series, a massive undertaking (do you feel how heavy it is?), a huge and (for those of us involved in it) hugely important project, many years in conception and quite a few in the making. It's not just a big book, and it's not just a good recipe collection: It's a collection of recipes in a style we've devised to teach you how to cook in the way people who really know how do all the time.

The Way To Cook differs from Mastering the Art of French Cooking in numerous ways. While Mastering was a collaboration that co-authors Simone Beck and Louisette Bertholle had gotten underway before Child's involvement, The Way To Cook was a solo work written entirely by Child during the late 1980s.
